(b) if so, the reasons for shortfall in earnings; and

(c) the steps taken to bring stability in shipping industry?

THE MINISTER OF SHIPPING (SHRI SHATRUGHAN SINHA): (a) and (b) No, Sir. However, the shipping industry is cyclical in nature. Its revenue and profitability depends on prevailing freight rate at a particular point of time.

(c) The Government has been taking various steps from time to time for development and stabilization of the Shipping industry in order to provide level playing field to compete in the International market. Some of them are listed as under:

- Import of all types of ships have been included in the Open General Licence (OGL);
- Ships (including second hand ships) can be imported freely now without license as per guidelines issued by the Ministry of Shipping on 15th June, 2001 and 5th March, 2002;
- 100 percent Foreign Direct Investment is allowed in Shipping sector;
- The proposed Custom duty of 5% on import of Ships in the Finance bill for 2001-2002, has been done away with.
- Enhancement of Depreciation rate from 20% to 25% for Ships.
- Section 33AC of IT Act has been made more attractive for Indian Shipping companies. The limit upto which reserves could be built up by the shipping companies for new acquisition will now include general reserves and share premium reserves also. Earlier it was limited to twice the paid up capital of the shipping companies.
